

WILDWOOD TRIVIA

- Q. Carmel, the Camel has one hump on her back, what type of camel is she?
A. She is a Dromedary Camel.
- Q. True or False. Carmel The Camel stores water in her hump?
A. False. Camels store fatty tissue in their humps.
- Q. Are our grants zebras, Zeus and Zaire, white with black stripes or black with white stripes?
A. They are black with white stripes. You can tell because under their fur, their skin is black.
- Q. True or False. There are three different species of porcupines at Wildwood Wildlife Park, African, Prehensile, and North American. All three species can shoot their quills at you.
A. False. Porcupines do not shoot their quills, because of the barb at the end of quill they stick into anything very easily.
- Q. True or False. Emus cannot fly.
A. True, but they can run up to 40 mph.
- Q. What is a group of kangaroos called?
A. A mob.
- Q. Animals that are more active at night than by day are considered to be what?
A. Nocturnal.
- Q. What kind of animal always gives birth to same sex twins?
A. The armadillo.
- Q. True or False. Puma, Mountain Lion, panther, and cougar are different names for the same species of cat?
A. True
- Q. Kya, our striped hyena, is native to what continent?
A. Africa.
- Q. Buddy, Honey & Candy are American Black Bears. The majority of a black bear's diet is? A. Fish B. Meat C. Donuts or D. Plant-based food
A. D. Plant-based food
- Q. What is a group of wolves called?
A. A pack, which consists of 2 or more wolves.
- Q. What aquatic mammal slaps the water with its flat tail as an alarm signal?
A. American beaver.

WILDWOOD TRIVIA

continued...

- Q. True or False. Woodchucks are awake for groundhogs day?
A. False, they are still hibernating.
- Q. What kind of birds can be found in the budgie exhibit?
A. Parakeets, which are also known as budgies.
- Q. Lemurs are native to only one country, what is it?
A. Madagascar.
- Q. Ponczka our North American porcupine has how many quills?
A. About 30,000.
- Q. Bison and Goats are considered Ruminants, which pertains to their stomach and what food they are able to eat. How many stomachs do Ruminants have?
A. 4 stomachs, but only one true stomach-Abomasum.
- Q. Zaire and Zeus our Zebras are not ruminants because they do not digest their food in their stomach, where do they digest their food?
A. In their Hind-gut.
- Q. How long does it take for a baby chick to hatch in an incubator?
A. About 21 days.
- Q. Prairie dogs live in what's known as a what?
A. Town
- Q. A group of owls is called?
A. Parliament
- Q. What kind of snake has the heaviest recorded weight in the world?
A. An anaconda at 600 lbs!
- Q. Why do Canadian lynx's have such big paws?
A. So that they can walk on snow more easily.
- Q. What is a white tailed-deer called with antlers?
A. A buck.
- Q. What are baby goats called?
A. Kids.
- Q. Sheba and Shertan are two cats at Wildwood Wildlife Park. They are the largest species of cat in the world. What kind of cat are they?
A. Siberian Tigers.

WILDWOOD TRIVIA

continued...

- Q. True or False. Kiszka and Sasha, our two mountain lions, can roar.
A. False. Cougars are the largest of the "smaller" cats and cannot roar.
- Q. True or False. Lexus and Louie, our servals (a cat native to Africa), are herbivores?
A. False. They are carnivores.
- Q. Eagles are very good at spotting prey from a long distance, why?
A. Because they have excellent eye sight.
- Q. What relative of the alligator is native to Central and South America?
A. The caiman.
- Q. How many eyes does a tarantula have?
A. Eight, it can see in all directions at once.
- Q. What kind of animal does everything upside down, including eating, sleeping, and even giving birth?
A. A two-toed sloth.
- Q. What is the biggest difference between New World monkeys and Old World monkeys? A. Their eyes B. Their diet C. Their tails or D. Their fur.
A. C. New World monkeys have prehensile tails, while Old World monkeys do not.
- Q. This animal has a purple tongue that is 18 inches long?
A. Giraffe
- Q. This animal's heart is 2 feet long and weighs about 25 pounds?
A. Giraffe
- Q. This animal has the highest know blood pressure of any mammal in the world. Approximately twice that of an average human?
A. Giraffe
- Q. This animal eats up to 75 pounds of food a day?
A. Giraffe
- Q. This animal has the largest brain of all carnivores next to the polar bear?
A. Tiger
- Q. True or False. A group of tigers is called an ambush or a streak.
A. True

WILDWOOD TRIVIA

continued...

- Q. When this animal feels threatened they are able to erect their mane and the hairs on their back to make themselves appear much larger than they are what animal is this?
A. I am Kya the Striped Hyena
- Q. This animal is built to dig and it can move dirt faster than any other mammal what am I?
A. I am Bucky the Badger
- Q. I can stay submerged in the water for up to 15 minutes what am I?
A. Beaver
- Q. When this mother gives birth the baby is called a joey and is the size of a lima bean?
A. I am Kendra the Kangaroo
- Q. I sleep 16 hours a day who am I?
A. Snuggles the Two-Toed Sloth.
- Q. I am one of the most critically endangered primates in the world?
A. I am Titus the Cotton-Top Tamarin.
- Q. A domestic male is called a Billy, and a female a nanny?
A. I am a goat
- Q. This is the largest domestic rabbit in the world?
A. Peanut our Flemish Giant
- Q. What is the largest rodent in the World?
A. Cappy the Capybara
- Q. I am a South American Honey Badger what is my name?
A. Lloyd the Greater Grison

